

Community Living Well

Do you need support to improve your mental health and wellbeing?

If you are 16 and over or caring for someone who is, then Community Living Well is a new mental health service that offers you a different kind of mental health support.

Community Living Well brings people together from your local NHS, voluntary sector and local community groups into one service which will work alongside you and your GP to help you access the support you need.

Community Living Well offers easy access to a range of wellbeing and clinical services including:

- Primary Care Liaison
support from specialist mental health workers
- Talking Therapies
to help if you are stressed, worried or low in mood. We can also help individuals who are adjusting to having a new baby or those who need help to live with long term conditions
- Navigators
practical support with a range of issues including benefits, debt, housing options, access to health and social care services and support to access specialist advice and information
- Employment Support
supporting you to find work, take steps to improve your job prospects or keep your job
- Peer Support
wellbeing workshops, one-to-one support, peer support groups, social activities and peer support training with other people who have had similar experiences to you
- Self-Care
Support and activities that help you to take care of your own mental, emotional and physical wellbeing

Self-Care Services

What is Self-Care ?

Self-Care is an approach to health and wellbeing which helps you to keep yourself well.

Can the Self-Care services help me?

The Community Living Well programme helps people to take more control of their mental health and physical wellbeing and build social contact access to community, leisure, education, arts and volunteering opportunities.

There is a range of different self-care projects that you can access through Community Living Well. Details of these services are listed within this leaflet, including contact details if you would like to find out more information. If you are interested in one of the services, please fill out our self-referral form found here: communitylivingwell.co.uk/self-referral-form-mental-health/
