

Employment Support

Support if you want to find work or are struggling in your current job because of a mental health problem.

Can the Employment service help me?

The Community Living Well Employment service can help you if you want to find work or are struggling in your current job because of a mental health problem.

The Employment service is available to people:

- aged 16 years and over
- who are registered with a GP in Kensington and Chelsea or the Queen's Park and Paddington areas of Westminster
- and who have mental health needs.

What support does the Employment service offer?

The Community Living Well Employment team offers a range of support including information, advice and guidance to assist you in accessing opportunities in employment, training and education or to retain your current job.

Your dedicated Employment Adviser can help you:

- Find the right kind of work for you
- Return to work after a period of sick leave
- Stay in work and/or deal with workplace adjustments
- Know your employment rights.

The Community Living Well Employment service also supports you to learn a wide range of skills to help you get a job. These include:

- How to search for a job
- How to write a CV and cover letter
- How to fill in a job application form
- How to prepare for an interview.

How can I access Employment Support?

You can refer yourself quickly and easily by:

- completing the form on our website communitylivingwell.co.uk
- by calling 020 3317 4200
- or email us at cnw-tr.clw@nhs.net

Alternatively, you can ask your GP or other professional involved in your care to refer you to Community Living Well.

Community Living Well is a collaboration of NHS and voluntary sector partners.

Employment Support is delivered by SMART (St Mary Abotts Rehabilitation and Training).

SMART is a registered charity - No. 292787

More about the support available...

Individual Support - Whether you are looking for paid employment, work experience, volunteering or training, or you need support in your current job, your Employment Adviser will work with you to produce an action plan to help you identify your goals, the steps you need to take to achieve them, and any support needs you may have.

Job Search - We can help you to:

- Job search – including identifying the best places to search for the type of work you are interested in
- Update your CV/Make a new CV
- Complete job application forms
- Prepare for job interviews
- Disclose your mental health difficulties to potential employers
- Understand your rights in the workplace.

Work experience, volunteering, training and education

If you are interested in volunteering or unpaid work experience your Employment Adviser can help you arrange a placement. Work experience or volunteering can be an essential part of your action plan. If you identify any training or further education that will help with your employment goals, your adviser can help you access this as well.

Currently employed and need support in work/to return to work

We can help you by:

- Identifying triggers of stress at work and look at possible adjustments
- Offering advice around relevant legislations (or refer you for legal advice if necessary)
- Negotiating with your employer for a phased return to work or amended duties.

The support we give is based around your individual situation.

Employer Support - We can also support your employer in a variety of ways (with your consent) or give you the tools to deal with issues in the workplace.

We can help you by:

- Offering advice and support around managing someone with a stress related and/or mental health condition
- Implementing reasonable adjustments
- Providing up to date information around relevant legislation
- Offering work-site support
- Identifying workplace bullying, harassment or discrimination
- Providing training around mental health awareness.

What you can expect from us:

- Support and advice about employment, volunteering, training and education
- An individual action plan setting out your goals. It will also identify any support needs you may have
- Impartial advice and guidance - we do not promote any one service or training provider
- Up to 15 one to one sessions with your Employment Adviser
- We work in partnership with other employment services in the borough and may refer you onto one of them if we believe they are better equipped to meet your needs.
